

Toni Davey studied BA [1st Hons] Fine Art at Hornsey College of Art [1966-69] and MA sculpture at Chelsea College of Art [1970-71]. She continued to work in London as an Artist and college lecturer. During this period her experience as an architectural model maker had a decisive influence on her thinking about sculpture, especially in relation to materials and scale. Toni has lived and worked in Somerset since 1984. She is represented by The Beardsmore Gallery in London.
